[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your request for reconsideration for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of 10 USC 1552.

A review of our files reveals that in July 2012, you petitioned the Board for Correction of Naval Records seeking the following: proper storage entitlement, Non Temporary Storage (NTS) vice Storage in Transit (SIT).

In February 2013, after careful consideration of your request, the Board found insufficient evidence of an error or injustice that would warrant the relief you sought. Therefore, your case was denied. In March 2013, you submitted a reconsideration request. However, you did not provide any new or material evidence to warrant a change to your record. In October 2013, you submitted a second reconsideration request. However, you still did not provide any new or material evidence.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 2 June 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that you did not submit any new or material evidence to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Accordingly, your request for reconsideration is denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
