Docket No. 8219-15

5 U.S.C. 552(B)(6)

Dear 5 U.S.C. 552(B)(6)

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of 10 USC 1552. Your case was reconsidered in accordance with Board for Correction of Naval Records procedures that conform to Lipsman v. Secretary of the Army, 335 F. Supp. 2d 48 (D.D.C. 2004). You previously petitioned the Board and were denied relief on 17 January 2002.

Your current application was reviewed for new evidence not previously considered by the Board. Since you did not provide any new evidence not previously considered by the Board, your request for reconsideration is denied and your case is hereby administratively closed.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new evidence within one year from the date of the Board's decision. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board prior to making its decision in this case. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.
