

[REDACTED] for duty with an effective date of arrival of November 2018. On 9 October 2018, you reenlisted for 6 years with an expiration of active obligated service (EAOS) of 8 October 2024. On 19 October 2018, you transferred from [REDACTED] and arrived to [REDACTED] on 19 November 2018 for duty.

You requested to have AIP instated in your orders in order to receive $500 per month and receive back pay to your report date of 19 November 2018; the Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that you did not contact your detailer regarding AIP until after your orders negotiation window of March 2018. Furthermore, there is no evidence that you submitted a written request by either fax or email to PERS-40 AIP Manager. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

11/8/2021
