Dear █,

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 3 November 2021. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

You requested to establish eligibility to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits to your son. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that pursuant to Title 38 U.S.C. Chapter 33 the ability to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits to eligible dependents became effective until 1 August 2009. Bureau of Naval Personnel Notice 1780 published on 7 April 2010 with various updates thereafter and Navy Administrative messages outline eligibility, processing, service obligation, and reference information germane to transferring education benefits to eligible dependents. Generally, to transfer education benefits Service members must have served 6 years in the active component or Selected Reserve (SELRES) and agree to an additional 4 years of service on active duty or in SELRES from the date of election. Service in the Individual Ready Reserve (IRR) is not included in accordance with Department of Defense Instruction 1341.13; the Voluntary Training Unit (VTU) is a subset of the IRR.

A review of your record indicates you discharged on 31 August 2005 with over 12 years of active duty service. Upon affiliating with the drilling Navy Reserve (NR) on 12 January 2012, you were assigned to █ until your transfer to the Retired Reserve without pay effective 1 June 2017, thereby rendering you ineligible to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits.

The Board determined that your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. Therefore, the Board determined that a personal appearance was not necessary and considered your case based on the evidence of record.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

12/3/2021
