

range and your subsequent integrity transgressions did not rise to the level of immediate reporting to the CMC. Because you were not the subject of formal disciplinary actions, a DC-occasioned fitness report was not warranted. The conduct, however, was subject to documentation on the next required reporting occasion which was, in this case, an annual occasion. The Board concluded your request is lacking in substantial evidence of error or injustice warranting removal.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
