

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

█
Docket No. 4088-21
Ref: Signature Date

Dear █:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 19 October 2021. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

On 19 October 1985, you enlisted for 8 years in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve with an Expiration of Obligated Service (EOS) of 18 October 1993. On 21 April 1986, you entered active duty for 4 years with an End of Current Contract (ECC) of 20 April 1990. On 14 February 1990, you signed an administrative remarks (NAVMC 118 (11)) accepting early release from active duty and that your desired date of release from active duty was 15 February 1990. On 15 February 1990, you were honorably released from active duty and transferred to the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. Furthermore, DD Form 214 (Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty) listed a regular leave balance (RLB) of 57 days. On 18 October 1993, you were discharged from the U.S. Marine Corps.

You requested to change your date of separation from active duty to reflect 20 April 1990 vice 15 February 1990. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that as requested, you were released from active duty on 15 February 1990. Furthermore, block 16 of your DD Form 214 listed that 57 days of regular leave were paid, meaning that those days are not considered terminal leave.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

11/25/2021
