

providing their respective comments and you provided no substantial documentation or evidence to show that the RS intentional marked you below-average in any of the attribute markings. In fact, the Board noted that the Section I and K comments adequately explains the justification of your performance in a peer group that, by all accounts, is highly competitive in nature. The Board further noted that you omitted any endorsement from the reporting officials that support your contentions that the report can be perceived as negative and should be removed or modified. The Board thus concluded that your request is lacking in substantial evidence of error or injustice warranting removal of the fitness report from your OMPF.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
