

The Board noted you did not submit any documentation or advocacy letters in support of your application to be considered for clemency consideration. Additionally, characterization of service is based in part on conduct marks assigned on a periodic basis. Your conduct mark average was 3.5. At the time of your service, a conduct mark average of 4.0 was required to be considered for a fully honorable characterization of service. Based upon this review, the Board concluded these potentially mitigating factors were insufficient to warrant relief. Specifically, the Board determined your misconduct as evidenced by three NJPs and SCM conviction, outweighed these mitigating factors. The Board further concluded that your general (under honorable conditions) is appropriate as issued based on your misconduct. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
