Dear Petitioner:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your application on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 20 December 2021. The names and votes of the panel members will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of the Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record, applicable statutes, regulations, and policies, to include the 25 July 2018 guidance from the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness regarding equity, injustice or clemency determinations (Wilkie Memo).

You enlisted in the Naval Reserves and began a period of active duty on 20 September 1993. On 14 February 1995, you began a period of unauthorized absence (UA), which lasted two hours and resulted in you missing ship movement. On 25 April 1995, you began a second period of UA, which lasted 28 days and resulted in you missing ship movement in three occasions. On 24 May 1995, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for UA, and three instances of missing ship movement. On 25 May 1995, you were notified of the initiation of administrative separation proceedings by reason of misconduct due to commission of a serious offense, at which point, you elected to waive all your procedural rights. On 30 May 1995, your commanding officer recommended an other than honorable (OTH) discharge characterization of service by reason of misconduct due to commission of a serious offense. On 19 June 1995, the discharge authority approved and ordered an OTH discharge by reason of misconduct. On 30 June 1995, you were discharged.

The Board carefully considered all potentially mitigating factors to determine whether the interests of justice warrant relief in your case in accordance with the Wilkie Memo. These included, but were not limited to, your contentions that: (a) you were given a Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214) reflecting an honorable characterization of service; (b) you missed ship movement on one occasion and you were punished for it; and (c) you were allowed to serve in the Army Reserves for a period of four years. Based upon this review, the Board concluded these potentially mitigating factors were insufficient to warrant relief. Specifically, the Board determined that your repeated misconduct, as evidenced by your NJP, outweighed these mitigating factors. The Board noted you did not submit any documentation or advocacy letters to be considered. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon the submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

Executive Director
