

the Marine's record even if the RE-30 reentry code is subsequently removed by the Commandant of the Marine Corps (MMEA/RAM). The Board thus concluded the Page 11 was appropriately retained in your record, and there is insufficient evidence of material error or injustice warranting your requested relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
