Dear █:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 22 February 2022. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

On 23 January 2018, you received an Administrative Remarks 6105 counseling entry for violating Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) for Special Training Company (STC) by “fraternizing ... attempting to pursue an intimate relationship within the Basic Marine Platoon and entering an unauthorized location after taps” you argue the 6105 entry is invalid because the person you were alleged to have fraternized with was also a junior Marine who later became your husband.

The Board carefully considered your request to remove the 6105 entry. The Board noted that at the time that you received the 6105 you were not married; your marriage certificate is dated 10 March 2018. In addition, the Board noted that the counseling entry is based on the fact you violated the Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) by your actions rather than committing the offense of fraternization as defined by OPNAVINST 5370.2D. Therefore, absent evidence you did not violate Special Training Company SOP, the Board concluded the counseling properly documents your actions. Moreover, the Board noted that you elected not to submit a rebuttal to the counseling and that both you and your commanding officer (CO) signed the entry. Accordingly, the Board determined that there was no substantive error with the 6105 entry as it provided written notification concerning your deficiency, where to seek assistance, and potential consequences if further violations occur. Moreover, the Board determined the entry created a permanent record of a matter your CO deemed significant enough to document, and as your CO, he was well within his authority to issue the counseling entry. The Board thus concluded that there is no material error or injustice warranting further action.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

3/3/2022

Executive Director
