

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS 701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001 ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

> Docket No: 7793-21 Ref: Signature Date

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

Although you did not file your application in a timely manner, the statute of limitation was waived in accordance with the 25 August 2017 guidance from the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (Kurta Memo). A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 30 March 2022. The names and votes of the panel members will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies, to include the Kurta Memo, the 3 September 2014 guidance from the Secretary of Defense regarding discharge upgrade requests by Veterans claiming post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) (Hagel Memo), and the 25 July 2018 guidance from the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness regarding equity, injustice, or clemency determinations (Wilkie Memo). The Board also considered an advisory opinion (AO) from a qualified mental health professional dated 16 February 2022, which was previously provided to you.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 19 July 1976. During the period from 6 December 1976 to 15 March 1977, you received three instances of non-judicial punishment (NJP). Your offenses were three periods of unauthorized absence and breaking restriction. On 3 August 1977, you were convicted by a special court-martial (SPCM) of two specifications of unauthorized absence totaling 88 days and wrongful possession of marijuana. On 26 June 1980, you were again convicted by a SPCM of two specifications of unauthorized absence totaling 849 days. As punishment, you were sentenced to confinement, forfeiture of pay and a bad conduct discharge (BCD).

Following your second SPCM, the record shows that on 8 September 1980, you commenced a period of unauthorized absence that subsequently concluded upon your apprehension on 30 May 1984. On 27 June 1984, you submitted a written request for separation in lieu of trial by court-martial for an unauthorized absence from 8 September 1980 to on or about 30 May 1984. Prior to submitting this request, you conferred with a military lawyer at which time you were advised of your rights and warned of the probable adverse consequences of accepting such a discharge. As part of this discharge request, you admitted your guilt to the foregoing offenses and acknowledged that your characterization of service upon discharge would be other than honorable (OTH). The separation authority approved your request and directed your commanding officer to discharge you with an OTH characterization of service. As a result, you were spared the stigma of a court-martial conviction, as well as the potential penalties of a punitive discharge. You were discharged on 13 August 1984.

As part of the Board's review, a qualified mental health professional reviewed your request and provided the Board with an AO on 16 February 2022. The AO noted that there is no evidence that you were diagnosed with a mental health disorder during your military service. Additionally, throughout your disciplinary processing, there were no concerns raised of a mental health condition that would have warranted additional evaluation, and you have provided no post-service medical evidence of a mental health condition. Unfortunately, your personal statement is not sufficiently detailed to establish a nexus with your misconduct. The AO concluded that additional information is required to render an alternate opinion and stated there is insufficient evidence that you may have incurred PTSD or another unfitting mental health condition during military service or that your misconduct could be attributed to PTSD or another unfitting mental health condition.

The Board carefully reviewed your application, weighed all potentially mitigating factors, and considered your contention that your mother and father were both very sick and you chose to stay and help them as best as you could at the time. Unfortunately, the Board, applying liberal consideration, relying on the AO, and noting you did not submit any documentation regarding your PTSD or other mental health conditions, did not find evidence of an error or injustice that warrants upgrading your characterization of service or granting clemency in the form of an upgraded characterization of service.

The Board carefully considered all potentially mitigating factors to determine whether the interests of justice warrant relief in your case in accordance with the Wilkie Memo. These included, but were not limited to, your desire to upgrade your discharge character of service and contention as previously discussed. For purposes of clemency consideration, the Board noted you did not provide a statement or supporting documentation describing post-service accomplishments, or advocacy letters.

Based upon this review, the Board concluded your potentially mitigating factors were insufficient to warrant relief. Specifically, the Board determined that your misconduct, as evidenced by your three NJPs, two SPCM convictions, and an extensive period of unauthorized that formed the basis for your request to be separated from the Marine Corps in lieu of trial by court-martial, outweighed these mitigating factors. In making his finding, the Board concluded your record of misconduct showed a complete disregard for military authority and regulations.

Docket No: 7793-21

Finally, the Board noted you received a benefit from being allowed to separate with an OTH character of service instead of risking greater punishment at a court-martial that likely would have included a punitive discharge based on the significance of your misconduct. As a result, the Board did not find evidence of an error or injustice that warrants upgrading your characterization of service or sufficient evidence to warrant clemency. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.
