Dear █,

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your case on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 11 January 2022. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

You requested to change your record to reflect advancement from E-3 to Engineman Third Class (EN3)/E-4. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. The Board concluded that you did not meet the eligibility criteria for advancement to EN3/E-4 in accordance with Bureau of Naval Personnel Instruction 1430.16. Specifically, the policy required members to successfully compete in a Navy-wide examination for advancement in rate to the next higher paygrade. A review of your record indicates that you enlisted on 26 October 1965 for a term of 2 years. On 20 July 1967, you were issued NAVPERS 601-13, Administrative Remarks indicating, "Recommended for advancement and nominated for examination. Eligible in all respects for participation in Navy-wide competitive examination for EN3." However, the Board could not find, nor did you provide evidence of your participating in a Navy-wide examination prior to your release from active duty on 25 October 1967, thereby rendering you ineligible for advancement to EN3/E-4.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

2/15/2022
