(3) Subject's naval record

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that her naval record be corrected to establish satisfactory years of qualifying service for anniversary years ending 16 May 2012, 16 May 2015, 16 May 2017, and 16 May 2021.

2. The Board, consisting of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 17 February 2022 and, pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, found that, before applying to this Board, she exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board made the following findings:

a. On 10 August 2002, Petitioner entered the Navy Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC).

b. On 16 May 2003, Petitioner completed NROTC.

c. On 17 May 2003, Petitioner was commissioned in the United States Marine Corps Reserve (USMCR) – C1 status.

d. On 1 May 2005, Petitioner transferred to the United States Marine Corps and on 16 May 2011 was released from active duty and transferred to the USMCR Individual Ready Reserve.

- e. On 1 December 2011, Petitioner transferred to Selected Marine Corps Reserve status.
- f. On 9 August 2012, Petitioner's anniversary year ending this date reflects 58 inactive duty points and a satisfactory year of qualifying service.
- g. On 9 August 2015, Petitioner's anniversary year ending this date reflects 55 inactive duty points and 7 active duty points and a satisfactory year of qualifying service.
- h. On 9 August 2017, Petitioner's anniversary year ending this date reflects 38 inactive duty points and 17 active duty points and a satisfactory year of qualifying service.
- i. On 9 August 2021, Petitioner's anniversary year ending this date reflects 57 inactive duty points and a satisfactory year of qualifying service.
- j. Sometime after 9 August 2021, Petitioner's anniversary date is corrected to 17 May. The anniversary years ending 16 May 2012, 16 May 2015, 16 May 2017, and 16 May 2021 reflect unsatisfactory years of qualifying service.
- k. On 14 February 2022, Marine Corps Total Force System Career Retirement Credit Record (CRCR) reflects 13 years of total qualifying service.
- l. In correspondence attached as enclosure (2), the office having cognizance over the subject matter addressed in Petitioner's application has commented to the effect that the request has merit and warrants favorable action.

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, and especially in light of the contents of enclosure (2), the Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following corrective action. Petitioner's anniversary year was erroneously started on 10 August. However, in accordance with reference (b), the anniversary year is established by the date the service member entered into active service or active status in a reserve component; time served in NROTC is not creditable for pay purposes. Upon the Marine Corps correcting the anniversary date to 17 May, Petitioner's points were redistributed. The redistributed points resulted in Petitioner not having the minimum 50 points for a satisfactory year for anniversary years ending 16 May 2012, 16 May 2015, 16 May 2017, and 16 May 2021. The Board felt, under these circumstances, relief is warranted.

RECOMMENDATION

That Petitioner's naval record be corrected, where appropriate, to show that:

Petitioner's CRCR is amended to reflect anniversary years ending 16 May 2012, 16 May 2015, 16 May 2017, and 16 May 2021 have 50 total points credited per year and a satisfactory year of qualifying service per year.
