(3) Subject's naval record

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that his naval record be corrected to establish satisfactory years of qualifying service for anniversary years ending 9 May 2014 and 9 May 2017.

2. The Board, consisting of ██████████, ██████████, and ██████████ reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 17 February 2022 and, pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, found that, before applying to this Board, he exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board made the following findings:

a. On 28 August 2000, Petitioner entered the Navy Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC).

b. On 9 May 2003, Petitioner completed NROTC.

c. On 10 May 2003, Petitioner was commissioned in the United States Marine Corps Reserve (USMCR) – C1 status.

d. On 1 May 2005, Petitioner transferred to the United States Marine Corps and on 24 February 2012 was released from active duty and transferred to the USMCR Individual Ready Reserve.

- e. On 25 February 2012, Petitioner transferred to Individual Mobilization Augmentee status.
- f. On 28 August 2014, Petitioner's anniversary year ending this date reflects 49 total reserve points and an unsatisfactory year of qualifying service. However, Annual Training orders executed from 3 June 2014 to 14 June 2014 is not reflected on the Annual Career Retirement Credit Record.
- g. On 28 August 2017, Petitioner's anniversary year ending this date reflects 46 inactive duty points and 15 active duty points and a satisfactory year of qualifying service.
- h. Sometime after March 2021, Petitioner's anniversary date is corrected to 10 May. The anniversary year ending 9 May 2014 reflects 16 total points credited and unsatisfactory year of qualifying service. The anniversary year ending 9 May 2017 reflects 40 inactive duty points credited, seven active duty points and an unsatisfactory year of qualifying service.
- i. On 14 February 2022, Marine Corps Total Force System Career Retirement Credit Record (CRCR) reflects 16 years of total qualifying service.
- j. In correspondence attached as enclosure (2), the office having cognizance over the subject matter addressed in Petitioner's application has commented to the effect that the request has merit and warrants favorable action.

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, and especially in light of the contents of enclosure (2), the Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following corrective action. Petitioner's anniversary year was erroneously started on 28 August. However, in accordance with reference (b), the anniversary year is established by the date the service member entered into active service or active status in a reserve component; time served in NROTC is not creditable for pay purposes. Upon the Marine Corps correcting the anniversary date to 10 May, Petitioner's points were redistributed. The redistributed points resulted in Petitioner not having the minimum 50 points for a satisfactory year for anniversary years ending 9 May 2014 and 9 May 2017. The Board felt, under these circumstances, relief is warranted.

RECOMMENDATION

That Petitioner's naval record be corrected, where appropriate, to show that:

Petitioner's CRCR is amended to reflect anniversary year ending 9 May 2014 and 9 May 2017 have 50 total points credited per year and a satisfactory year of qualifying service per year.

Note: This change will result in Petitioner earning 17 total years of qualifying service (TYQS) vice 16 TYQS as of 14 February 2022.

A copy of this Report of Proceedings will be filed in Petitioner's naval record.
