

constitute probable material error or injustice. Accordingly, the Board found insufficient evidence to support its removal from your record.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

6/4/2022

A large black rectangular redaction box covering the signature area.

Executive Director

A black rectangular redaction box covering the name of the Executive Director.