Dear █:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

The Board determined that your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. Therefore, the Board determined that a personal appearance was not necessary and considered your case based on the evidence of record.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your case on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 15 June 2022. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion by Community Management Support Branch (BUPERS-328) memorandum of 30 March 2022 which was previously provided to you for comment.

On 20 September 2007 you enlisted for 8 years in the U.S. Naval Reserve with an Expiration of Obligated Service of 19 September 2015. On 29 October 2007 you entered active duty for 4 years with an End of Active Obligated Service (EAOS) of 28 October 2011. On 28 October 2011 you were honorably released from active duty and transferred to the Navy Reserve. On 19 September 2015 you were honorably discharged from the U.S. Naval Reserve. Furthermore, you were recommended for reenlistment. On 29 November 2017 you reenlisted for 4 years in the U.S. Naval Reserve with an Expiration of Reserve Enlistment of 28 November 2021.

On 27 February 2018 you reenlisted for 4 years in the U.S. Navy with an EAOS of 26 February 2022. On 16 October 2020 you reenlisted for 4 years with an EAOS of 15 October 2024. On 28 October 2021 you signed an agreement to extend enlistment for 4 months with a SEAOS of 15 February 2025 in order to incur sufficient obligated service to execute BUPERS order 2671. On 31 December 2021 you transferred from NMCB 1.

You requested to have your service record be reviewed due to administrative error in 2011 that ended your naval service at your EAOS. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertion that you were never notified that you were actually approved for an in-rate quota in 2011. However, the Board concluded that there is no evidence that you were released from active duty in error. You made three applications for in-rate quota and all three were denied due to not enough quotas at the time. You put in an application for a Selective Reserve Religious Program quota that was denied, but approved the next day on 3 February 2011. You were subsequently released from active duty on your EAOS on 28 October 2011. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion.

Sincerely,

7/1/2022
