

does not violate PES Manual guidance and therefore, does not invalidate the contested Fitrep. In making this finding, the Board considered the fact that you ran the CFT on your own accord, despite the existing waiver, and your command accurately recorded your score on the contested Fitrep. The Board thus concluded that your request is lacking in sufficient evidence of error or injustice warranting removal of the Fitrep from your official military personnel file. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
