

not document any unsatisfactory performance that necessarily required counseling and counseling is not specifically required in conjunction with fitness report processing per MCO 1610.7A. The Board thus concluded that your request is lacking sufficient evidence of error or injustice to merit removal of the fitness report.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
