

eligible dependent required a 3-year additional service obligation at the time of election for those eligible to retire on or after 1 August 2011, and before 1 August 2012. Additionally, the policies specify, that failure to complete the service obligation would result in the right to the transferred entitlement being forfeited.

A review of your record indicates you entered active duty on 30 May 1992. You requested to TEB on 29 July 2009 and was approved with an obligation end date of 31 July 2012. Thereafter, you voluntarily transfer to the Retired List effective 1 July 2012, prior to completing your TEB service obligation. The Board is only authorized to make corrections to records that are within the scope of the law. Although, the Board empathizes with your situation, they are unable to waive the additional service obligation mandated by law.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

6/29/2022

■
_____

Deputy Director

■