Dear ██████████ ██████████

This is in reference to your application for correction of your spouse's naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your spouse's naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 13 July 2022. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your spouse's naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

The Board determined that your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. Therefore, the Board determined that a personal appearance was not necessary and considered your case based on the evidence of record.

You requested to establish eligibility to receive Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) annuities. The Board, in its review of your spouse's entire record and your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. The Board concluded that Department of Defense Financial Management Regulation 7000.14-R outlines the requirements for SBP elections. Specifically, the policy indicates the election to participate in or decline SBP coverage is irrevocable. Additionally, a member who does not have a spouse or dependent child at the time of eligibility for the program may elect SBP coverage within 1-year of acquiring a spouse or dependent child. A review of your spouse's record indicates on 16 September 2004, he signed DD Form 2656, Data for Payment of Retired Personnel electing not to participate in SBP coverage because he did not have any eligible dependents at the time. Thereafter, your spouse transferred to the Fleet Reserve effective 1 October 2004. You and your spouse married on 23 January 2019; however, the Board could not find, nor did you provided evidence that your spouse elected to participate in SBP coverage within 1-year of your marriage, thereby rendering you ineligible for SBP annuity.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

8/1/2022

Deputy Director
