Dear ██████████

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 22 September 2022. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies. In addition, the Board also considered the advisory opinion by Commander, Navy Reserve Forces Command (COMNAVRESFORCOM) letter 5420 Ser N1/306 of 8 August 2022, which was previously provided to you. You were afforded an opportunity to submit a rebuttal, but did not do so.

You requested to receive a ██████████ Prior Service Reenlistment Eligibility (PRISE-R) enlistment bonus. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that you did not meet the eligibility criteria for a PRISE-R enlistment bonus in accordance with Military Personnel Manual article 1133-061 and Reserve Personnel Manual Article 1100-020. Specifically, both policies indicate PRISE-R Sailors may be eligible to receive an enlistment bonus if enlisting for a period of 6 years in an eligible rating promulgated via naval message. A review of your record indicates that you served on active duty from 1 July 2009 through 1 June 2019. At the time of discharge, you were a Logistics Specialist Second Class. Thereafter you enlisted in the Navy Reserve on 30 July 2019 for a term of 3 years under the PRISE-R program as a Legalman Second Class, thereby rendering you ineligible for the PRISE-R enlistment bonus.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

10/5/2022
