Dear █

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 11 October 2022. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

On 7 October 1958, you enlisted in the Naval Reserve for 6 years with an expiration of obligated service of 6 October 1964. You were released from active military service with an honorable character of service and were issued a Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214) for the period of 7 October 1958 to 31 August 1962 in order to transfer you to the Naval Reserve. On 6 October 1964, you were honorably discharged from the Naval Reserve.

You requested to have Foreign Service listed on your DD Form 214. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions that you served in the █ and went to █. However, the Board concluded that you provided no evidence of any service overseas, sea service, or awards for service overseas and none could be found within your service record. Therefore, the Board determined that no change to your record is warranted. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

10/19/2022
