

condition that existed prior to your entry into service that was disqualifying for enlistment. Therefore, the Board found that you were appropriately discharged for erroneous enlistment. In reaching its conclusion, the Board also determined that the presumption of regularity applied to the process employed with respect to your narrative reason for separation. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

9/20/2022

