

7 January 2004, the discharge authority approved and directed your separation with an OTH character of service by reason of misconduct due to drug abuse. On 8 January 2004, you were so discharged.

The Board carefully considered all potentially mitigating factors to determine whether the interests of justice warrant relief in your case in accordance with the Wilkie Memo. These included, but were not limited to, your request to upgrade your character of service and contention that you failed one drug test and you were not provided any treatment for your drug abuse. For purposes of clemency consideration, the Board noted you did not provide supporting documentation describing post-service accomplishments or advocacy letters.

Based upon this review, the Board concluded these potentially mitigating factors were insufficient to warrant relief. Specifically, the Board determined that your misconduct, as evidenced by your NJPs, outweighed these mitigating factors. In making this finding, the Board considered the seriousness of your misconduct and the fact it included multiple drug offenses. The Board determined that illegal drug use by a Marine is contrary to Marine Corps core values and policy, renders such Marines unfit for duty, and poses an unnecessary risk to the safety of their fellow Marines. Further, the Board determined your conduct showed a complete disregard for military authority and regulations. In reviewing the totality of the circumstances concerning your discharge and characterization of service, the Board determined your command was under no obligation to send you to drug rehabilitation treatment unless it was determined, by competent medical authority, that you were drug dependent. The Board found your command made sufficient effort in evaluating your drug abuse and relied on competent medical advice in determining in-service treatment was not required based on a medical determination that you were not drug dependent. As a result, the Board concluded your conduct constituted a significant departure from that expected of a Marine and continues to warrant an OTH characterization. Even in light of the Wilkie Memo and reviewing the record holistically, the Board did not find evidence of an error or injustice that warrants upgrading your characterization of service or granting clemency in the form of an upgraded characterization of service. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon the submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
