

revisions to the original report and ensures that the RS is in fact making the revisions. Moreover, supplementary material does not replace the original fitness report in your record. As a result, the Board concluded that there is no probable material error, substantive inaccuracy, or injustice warranting the replacement of the original fitness report with the revised report. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
