Dear ██████████

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 5 January 2023. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies. In addition, the Board also considered the advisory opinion by Navy Personnel Command memorandum 1070 PERS-312/SA of 24 October 2022, which was previously provided to you. You were afforded an opportunity to submit a rebuttal, but did not do so.

The Board determined that your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. Therefore, the Board determined that a personal appearance was not necessary and considered your case based on the evidence of record.

You requested to change your Home of Record (HOR) from ██████████. The Board, in its review of relevant portions of your naval record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded you did not meet the eligibility criteria to change your HOR per the Joint Travel Regulation. Specifically, a member may only change the HOR if a break in service exceeds one full day (more than 24 hours). A review of your record indicates your DD Form 4, Enlistment / Reenlistment Document signed 4 May 2015 and NAVPERS 1070/74, Report of Home of Record and Place from Which Ordered to Active Duty signed on 20 July 2015 both reflect your HOR as ██████████. Moreover, you have not had a break in service, thereby rendering you
