(2) Case Summary

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Petitioner, a former enlisted member of the Navy, filed enclosure (1) with this Board requesting a correction to his naval record, specifically, the addition of periods of active duty service on his Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214). Enclosures (1) and (2) apply.

2. The Board, consisting of [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED], reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 13 February 2023 and, pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of Petitioner's application together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice finds as follows:

a. Before applying to this Board, Petitioner exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy.

b. Although enclosure (1) was not filed in a timely manner, it is in the interests of justice to waive the statute of limitations and review the application on its merits.

c. Petitioner enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty service on 21 July 1981. On 23 August 1984, Petitioner was honorably discharged by reason of immediate reenlistment.

d. On 24 August 1984, Petitioner reenlisted in the Marine Corps and began a second period of active duty service that ended on 4 April 1988. However, Petitioner's record does not contain a DD Form 214 covering this period of active duty.

e. On 5 April 1988, Petitioner began a third period of active duty service. On 3 May 1989, Petitioner be administratively separated from the Marine Corps by reason of physical disability with severance pay.

g. Petitioner is requesting a new DD form 214 which reflects his time in active duty service without a breaks. Petitioner is requesting this correction for administrative reasons and for use of record.

CONCLUSION:

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, the Board concludes Petitioner's request warrants relief. The Board determined there is no evidence in the Petitioner record indicating that he was issued a DD Form 214 for his second period of active duty service. In this regard, the Board determined that Petitioner shall be issued a new DD Form 214 indicating that he completed a period of active duty service from 24 August 1984 to 4 April 1988.

RECOMMENDATION:

In view of the above, the Board directs the following corrective action.
