Dear █,

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 4 January 2023. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

You requested to change your Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214) ending on 31 March 1996 to reflect date entered active duty this period in 1981 vice 1985. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that in accordance with Naval Military Personnel Command Instruction 1900.1B, the DD Form 214 was prepared and furnished to members while serving on active duty who discharged for the purpose of immediate reenlistment. A review of your record indicates you were issued a DD Form 214 for the period of 6 March 1981 through 8 October 1985. The Board noted you may request a replacement copy of the DD Form 214 by submitting an SF-180, Request Pertaining to Military Record to Navy Personnel Command (PERS-31) at askmncc@navy.mil.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

1/9/2023
