 (3) Subject's naval record

2. The Board, consisting of the second second second second reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 28 March 2023 and pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, found that, before applying to this Board, he exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board made the following findings:

a. On 1 August 2002, Petitioner enlisted in the Naval Reserve for a term of 8 years of which 4 years was an active duty obligation. Petitioner's enlistment documents listed HOR as with an Active Duty Service Date (ADSD) of 22 January 2003. However, Petitioner's official military personnel file also contains an extra page indicating a change to Block 3 (Current Address) as reflected in Block 34 (Recertification by Applicant and Correction of Data at the Time of Active Duty Entry);

b. Petitioner's ADSD was 31 March 2003.

c. Petitioner discharged on 7 November 2005; DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, reflects Block 7.a. (Place of Entry into Active Duty)
