

same grade and is not a determinant of whether a report is satisfactory or unsatisfactory. Additionally, the Board noted an endorsement from the Reviewing Officer, who concurred with the original RS's evaluation, has not been submitted with your request nor has the RS acknowledged the impact the requested changes would have on the other Marines in his profile. Based on the available evidence, the Board concluded there is insufficient evidence of an error or injustice warranting modification of the contested fitness report. As a result, the Board determined there was no basis for the removal of your failures of selection or the granting of a remedial promotion board. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
