(b) The Joint Travel Regulation (JTR) 2022

Encl: (1) DD Form 149 w/attachments
(2) Subject's naval record

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that his naval record be corrected to show Petitioner was reimbursed for his Personally Procured Move (PPM).

2. The Board, consisting of [REDACTED] reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 4 May 2023 and pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. Before applying to this Board, Petitioner exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, finds as follows:

a. On 27 September 2022, Petitioner submitted Leave Request/Authorization (NAVCOMPT Form 3065) requesting separation/retirement leave from 07:00 3 October 2022 to 23:59 14 November 2022 at [REDACTED]. Petitioner's request was approved by cognizant authority on 30 September 2022. Petitioner was discharged with an Honorable character of service and was issued a Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214) for the period of 18 June 2014 to 14 November 2022 upon completion of required active service.

b. On 3 January 2023, Petitioner was issued official separation orders (BUPERS order: 0033) while stationed in [REDACTED] with an effective date of departure of December 2022. Petitioner's place elected for travel was [REDACTED] with an effective date of separation of 31 December 2022.

c. On 11 January 2023, Defense Joint Military Pay System/Master Military Pay Account (DJMS/MMPA) reflects Petitioner was charged with a period of ordinary leave from 5 September 2022 to 16 September 2022 (12) days, 20 September to 29 September 2022 (10) days, and a period of terminal leave from 3 October 2022 to 14 November 2022 (43) days.

d. On 2 February 2023, [REDACTED] notified Petitioner that they understand that Petitioner contacted their office concerning PPM claim from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]. The claim has been denied because the move took place prior to issuance of orders. Their office has no authority to process the move claim at this time. Petitioner's avenue of appeal is to the Board of Corrections for Naval Records.

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, and especially in light of the contents of reference (b) and enclosure (2), the Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following corrective action. The Board concluded per reference (b) Household Goods (HHG) allowances are based on the when orders are effective and certain criteria must be met in order to execute HHG transportation before an order is issued. Petitioner was preparing to separate upon completion of required active service; therefore, Petitioner had reason to believe that official separation orders would be forthcoming. Furthermore, Petitioner was separated on 14 November 2022 and his separation orders were issued on 3 January 2023.

RECOMMENDATION

That Petitioner's naval record be corrected, where appropriate, to show that:

Petitioner's official separation orders (BUPERS order: 0033) were issued on "4 September 2022" vice "3 January 2023".

A copy of this Report of Proceedings will be filed in Petitioner's naval record.

4. It is certified that a quorum was present at the Board's review and deliberations, and that the foregoing is a true and complete record of the Board's proceedings in the above-entitled matter.

5. Pursuant to the delegation of authority set out in Section 6(e) of the revised Procedures of the Board for Correction of Naval Records (32 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 723.6(e)), and having assured compliance with its provisions, it is hereby announced that the foregoing corrective action, taken under the authority of the reference, has been approved by the Board on behalf of the Secretary of the Navy.
