Dear █

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your case on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 11 April 2023. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

You requested a DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty for your time served on the Temporary Disability Retired List (TDRL). The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. The Board concluded that in accordance with Bureau of Naval Personnel Instruction 1900.8B, the DD Form 214 is prepared to cover periods of service on active duty, active duty for training, full-time training duty, active duty for special work, certain periods terminated by a change of status not concurrent with separation from active service, and release from a status that is legally determined to be void. The policy specified that the DD Form 214 would not be prepared or issued in the case of personnel who were removed from the TDRL.

A review of your record indicates you served on active duty from 26 August 1997 to 31 March 2009 and issued a DD Form 214 capturing your honorable service. You transferred to the TDRL effective 1 April 2009 and remained in that status until your discharge effective 16 February 2011; notification of discharge from TDRL was issued to you on 16 February 2011. Therefore, the Board agreed, per the aforementioned policy, relief is not warranted.

Sincerely,

4/20/2023
