

the Board noted that each and every fitness report is based on a unique and discrete period of performance so comparison of the challenged report with other preceding or subsequent reports, unless there is a direct linkage, should be avoided. Lastly, the Board noted that attribute markings of "C" and "D" do not denote substandard performance nor do they require justification in the section I comments. Based on the available evidence, the Board concluded there is insufficient evidence of an error or injustice warranting removal of the contested fitness report from your record. Accordingly, given the totality of the circumstances, the Board determined that your request does not merit relief.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
