DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

Docket No. 4116-23
Ref: Signature Date

[redacted]

Dear [redacted],

This is in reference to your application for correction of your spouse's naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your spouse's naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 23 May 2023. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your spouse's naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

You requested your spouse's DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty ending on 2 June 1987 reflect the rank of Fire Controlman First Class (FC1)/E-6). The Board, in its review of your spouse's entire record and your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. The Board concluded that your spouse was frocked to FC1/E-6 on 6 January 1987 but he was not entitled to the increased pay and allowances until his actual date of advancement. Your spouse's effective date of advancement to FC1/E-6 would have been 16 June 1987, which was after his 2 June 1987 release from active duty. Therefore, correction to his active duty DD Form 214 is not warranted. The Board noted that in accordance with Navy Military Personnel Command Instruction 1900.1B, a DD Form 214 is only issued for active duty service, thus your spouse's rank/paygrade of FC2/E-5 reflects the proper rank/paygrade at the time his DD Form 214 was issued.

Sincerely,

6/2/2023
