1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that his naval record be corrected to show Petitioner was reimbursed for his Personally Procured Move (PPM).

2. The Board, consisting of [REDACTED] reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 21 September 2023 and pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. Before applying to this Board, Petitioner exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, finds as follows:

d. On 11 March 2023, in accordance with the Master Military Pay Account, Petitioner was charged terminal leave for the period of 21 January 2023 to 19 February 2023 (30 days).

The Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following corrective action. The Board concluded per reference (b), household goods allowances are based on the when orders are effective and certain criteria must be met in order to execute household goods transportation before an order is issued. Petitioner was preparing to transfer to the navy reserve upon completion of required active service, therefore Petitioner had reason to believe that official separation orders would be forthcoming.
