Dear ██████████,

This is in reference to your application for correction of your spouse's naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your spouse's naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your case on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 19 September 2023. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your spouse's naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

You requested your spouse's DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty ending on 1 December 1981 reflect promotion to Corporal/E-4 effective 1 August 1984. The Board, in its review of your spouse's entire record and your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that your spouse's promotion warrant to the rank of Corporal was in the Reserves and was effective on 1 August 1984, which was after his 1 December 1981 release from active duty. Therefore, correction to his active duty DD Form 214 is not warranted. Furthermore, the Board noted that a DD Form 214 is only issued for active duty service, thus your spouse's rank/pay grade of Private/E-1 reflects the proper grade at the time his DD Form 214 was issued for his active duty service.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

9/26/2023
