CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, and especially in light of the contents of reference (b) and enclosure (2), the Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following corrective action. The Board concluded per reference (b), household goods allowances are based on the when orders are effective and certain criteria must be met in order to execute household goods transportation before an order is issued. Petitioner was preparing for her medical discharge; therefore, she had reason to believe that official separation orders would be forthcoming. Furthermore, Petitioner was discharged due to disability prior to the receipt of her official separation orders.
