Ref: (a) Title 10 U.S.C. § 1552
(b) The Joint Travel Regulation (2022)

Encl: (1) DD Form 149 w/attachments
(2) Subject's naval record

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that his naval record be corrected to show Petitioner was reimbursed for his Personally Procured Move (PPM).

2. The Board, consisting of █, and █ reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 21 November 2023 and pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. Before applying to this Board, Petitioner exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice finds as follows:

a. On 11 November 2021 (14:53), █ (Weighed on a █ Scale) receipt was issued at █ with an inbound weight of 8,780 lbs.

b. On 17 December 2021, Petitioner was issued official separation orders (BUPERS order: 3511) while stationed in █ with an effective date of departure of December 2021. Petitioner's place elected for travel: █ with an effective date of separation of 15 January 2022.

d. On 16 June 2022, NAVSUP Fleet Logistics Center Norfolk notified Petitioner that “Regrettably our office is unable to process your move claim from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] due to the move took place prior to the issuance of the orders. The orders are dated 17 December 2021 and the move took place on 11 November 2021. You will need to file an appeal with the Board of Corrections for Naval Records. I have attached the form that is required for you to begin this process.”

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, and especially in light of the contents of reference (b) and enclosure (2), the Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following corrective action. The Board concluded per reference (b) household goods allowances are based on the when orders are effective and certain criteria must be met in order to execute household goods transportation before an order is issued. Petitioner was preparing to separate upon completion of required active service, therefore Petitioner had reason to believe that official separation orders would be forthcoming.
