

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

IN THE MATTER OF:

DOCKET NUMBER: BC-2023-02432

XXXXXXXXXX

COUNSEL: NONE

HEARING REQUESTED: NO

APPLICANT'S REQUEST

Her home of record (HOR) be changed from Work-Pr Work-Pr Wo... to Work-Pro Wo...

APPLICANT'S CONTENTIONS

Her original application for appointment in the Air Force was completed while she was living in Wo.... However, when it was accepted two years later, she had moved back to Wo.... The Wo... address is where she was living prior to accession and attendance at Officer Training School.

In support of her request, the applicant provides a copy of her USAA Federal Savings bank statement for the period 14 Jun 19 – 15 Jul 19, with a Wo... address.

The applicant's complete submission is at Exhibit A.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The applicant is a currently serving captain (O-3).

On 26 Jun 19, according to AF Form 24, Application for Appointment as Reserve of the Air Force or USAF without Component, the applicant signed a form that identifies her HOR as Wo....

On 27 Jul 19, according to AFRS IMT 1317, Commissioning Information – for all Health Professions Applicants, the applicant signed a form that identifies her HOR as Wo.... On this same date, according to AF Form 766, Extended Active Duty Order number AH-1018, dated 4 Jul 19, the applicant was ordered to extended active duty (EAD). Her HOR is listed as Wo....

For more information, see the excerpt of the applicant's record at Exhibit B.

APPLICABLE AUTHORITY/GUIDANCE

The Joint Travel Regulations (JTR), Appendix A, defines the HOR as the place recorded as the individual's home when appointed, commissioned, enlisted, inducted, or ordered into a tour of active duty. The JTR further states that a member may only change the HOR if a break in service exceeds one full day. Additionally, in instances of a bona fide error where the place originally named at the time of current entry into the service was not in fact the actual home, the correction must be fully justified and the home, as corrected, must be the member's actual home upon entering the service, and not a different place selected for the member's convenience.

According to the DD Form 214 Personnel Services Delivery Guide, the HOR on the application for appointment (AF Form 24, Application for Appointment as Reserve of the Air Force or USAF without Component) is used as the HOR on the DD Form 214 for active duty officers. As a secondary source, the HOR listed on the EAD order for the starting period of service recorded on the DD Form 214, block 12a (Date Entered Active Duty this Period), may be used.

AIR FORCE EVALUATION

AFPC/DPMN recommends denying the application. DPMN states there is no evidence of an error or injustice. On 26 Jun 19, the applicant recorded her HOR as [redacted] on AF Form 24. On 4 Jul 19, the applicant's AF IMT 766, EAD order was published reflecting her HOR as [redacted]. On 27 Jul 19, the applicant entered onto extended active duty and AFPC did not receive a request from the applicant prior to date entered active duty to amend HOR on AF Form 766 to reflect [redacted]. On 27 Jul 19, the applicant recorded her HOR as [redacted] on her AFRS IMT 1317. In accordance with the JTR, the HOR is the place recorded as the individual's home when commissioned, appointed, enlisted, inducted, or ordered into a tour of active duty. Additionally, it states only if a break in service exceeds one full day may the member change the HOR. Any such correction must be fully justified and the home, as corrected, must be the member's actual home upon entering the Service, and not a different place selected for the member's convenience. Adjusting her home of record would be contrary to the JTR.

The complete advisory opinion is at Exhibit C.

APPLICANT'S REVIEW OF AIR FORCE EVALUATION

The Board sent a copy of the advisory opinion to the applicant on 6 Feb 24 for comment (Exhibit D) but has received no response.

The applicant's complete response is at Exhibit E.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSION

1. The application was timely filed.
2. The applicant exhausted all available non-judicial relief before applying to the Board.
3. After reviewing all Exhibits, the Board concludes the applicant is not the victim of an error or injustice. The Board concurs with the rationale and recommendation of AFPC/DPMN and finds a preponderance of the evidence does not substantiate the applicant's contentions. Therefore, the Board recommends against correcting the applicant's records. In view of the foregoing, the Board recommends against correcting the applicant's records.

RECOMMENDATION

The Board recommends informing the applicant the evidence did not demonstrate material error or injustice, and the Board will reconsider the application only upon receipt of relevant evidence not already presented.
