UNITED STATES AIR FORCE BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF MILITARY RECORDS

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

IN THE MATTER OF:

DOCKET NUMBER: BC-2024-00836

Work-Product

COUNSEL: NONE

HEARING REQUESTED: NO

APPLICANT'S REQUEST

His Fiscal Year (FY) 2022 aviation bonus (AvB) in the amount of $35,000 in exchange for a one-year service contract be approved.

APPLICANT'S CONTENTIONS

He had an AvB that was approved by command authorities and the Air Reserve Personnel Center (ARPC). His AvB aligned with the Exception to Policy (ETP) and he honorably completed the contract obligation. He did not receive notification of the errors with his AvB until 4 Jan 24 after he completed his Air Guard Reserve (AGR) tour and had no opportunity to request a curtailment of his orders and return to his civilian employer.

The applicant's complete submission is at Exhibit A.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The applicant is an Air Force Reserve (AFR) lieutenant colonel (O-5).

According to the documents provided by the applicant and ARPC/DPAT:

On 29 May 19, the applicant signed an "Aviation Bonus (AvB) Program Agreement" for FY19 and requested a three-year AvB in the amount of $35,000. On 14 Jun 19, the AvB agreement was approved by ARPC with a start date of 25 Mar 19, but shows an amended agreement length of four years and an end date of 25 Mar 23.

On 1 Feb 21, Special Order Work-Product was published and amended previous orders that ordered the applicant to extended active duty in accordance with 10 USC 12310. The orders provided the applicant with a date of separation (DOS) of 31 Mar 23.

On 26 Sep 22, AFRC/A3 issued a "Blanket Exception to Policy for AvB Extension to Match AGR Order Extension" memorandum. The memorandum served as a blanket ETP approval for any AGR personnel requesting to extend their current three- or four-year AvB agreement by a minimum of 12 months beyond the current AvB agreement expiration date. It further states members must have AGR tour extension orders in hand at the time of the request.

According to the applicant's DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, he was honorably discharged after completing a period of active duty service from 25 Mar 19 through 30 Jun 23. He was credited with four years, three months and six days of net active service.

AIR FORCE EVALUATION

ARPC/DPAT recommends granting the application. The applicant requests he be awarded payment of $35K for his FY22 AvB agreement for which he was supposed to receive on 25 Mar 23. ARPC/DPATI acknowledges the injustice on behalf of the applicant, who, through his unwavering dedication and service, were eligible for payment under the AvB program. However, due to Air Force errors he did not receive the AvB payments.

The AvB program, designed to retain and recruit fully qualified and experienced aviators for time served in the AFR, was not able to honor several aviators as intended. In Sept 23, the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) notified ARPC/DPATI that DFAS could not make payments under flawed AvB contract extensions that incorporated the terms of an existing contract into a contract for future service. In response, DPATI conducted an internal audit of records for the AFR AvB program. As a result of this audit, DPATI identified multiple aviators who have been adversely affected. These individuals despite their belief in the validity of their contracts, have experienced denial of payment.

ARPC's audit identified three categories of errors relating to the AvB program, for which DFAS refuses to make AvB payments. These categories are as follows:

1. The aviator attempted to extend/renege an AvB but signed a new contract after the prior contract had expired.
2. The aviator requested an AvB extension under the authority of an ETP from AFRC/A3.
3. ARPC committed administrative errors when reviewing and approving AvB contracts.

Based on ARPC's internal audit and analysis of the facts, there is evidence an error or injustice has occurred. These highly skilled aviators successfully and faithfully executed their assigned duties. They remained qualified for AvB contract extensions, but DFAS denied payment due to ARPC's errors in administering the AvB contract extension process. Granting the AvB payment will ensure both the applicant and the AFR receive what was originally intended: a well-deserved bonus paid to these critically needed aviators for a term of service to which both parties believed they had agreed.

The complete advisory opinion is at Exhibit C.

APPLICANT'S REVIEW OF AIR FORCE EVALUATION

The Board sent a copy of the advisory opinion to the applicant on 17 Jul 24 for comment (Exhibit D), but has received no response.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSION

1. The application was timely filed.
2. The applicant exhausted all available non-judicial relief before applying to the Board.
3. After reviewing all Exhibits, the Board concludes the applicant is the victim of an error or injustice. The Board concurs with the rationale and recommendation of ARPC/DPAT and finds a preponderance of the evidence substantiates the applicant's contentions. The Board notes that in good faith the applicant extended his AGR tour by an additional one-year and in exchange for his extended service the Air Force agreed and informed the applicant that he would receive a bonus. However, due to procedural and administrative errors with the execution of the AvB program, the applicant has not received the bonus for which he has earned. Furthermore, the Board notes that the purpose of the AvB program is to retain our talented and skilled Airmen and denying the applicant a bonus he earned would not only be a detriment to the applicant, but the Air Force as well. Therefore, the Board recommends correcting the applicant's records as indicated below.

RECOMMENDATION

The pertinent military records of the Department of the Air Force relating to APPLICANT be corrected to show:

a) The applicant's Fiscal Year (FY) 2019 Aviation Bonus (AvB) be amended to reflect an agreement length of 48 months with effective dates 25 March 2019 through 24 March 2023 and a competent authority approved the agreement at the annual rate of $35,000.

b) He receive all associated payments not already received based on the amended Aviation Bonus (AvB) agreement.

CERTIFICATION

The following quorum of the Board, as defined in Department of the Air Force Instruction (DAFI) 36-2603, Air Force Board for Correction of Military Records (AFBCMR), paragraph 2.1, considered Docket Number BC-2024-00836 in Executive Session on 24 Sep 24:
