For more information, see the excerpt of the applicant's record at Exhibit B and the advisory at Exhibit C.

AIR FORCE EVALUATION

ARPC/PB recommends granting the request. The applicant's points should have been updated prior to the board, but due to a systems issue, the AD points earned in May 23 were not reflected in the system nor on his OSB that was viewed by the promotion board. The documentation (Active Duty – MPA order; LES; and points summary) shows the applicant performed 30 days of AD from 1 May 23 to 30 May 23, which equates to 30 points earned. Therefore, the amount of AD points reflected on his OSB should have been 42, which would have resulted in him having over 50 points for his R/R year and would have been reflected as a satisfactory year of service. Additionally, his R/R month is Jun. As it takes up to 90 days for points to be updated after the R/R month, the points should have been updated prior to the promotion board's convening date. However, according to ARPC Points Management Branch, there was a known systems error around the board's time frame which led to his points not being updated in a timely manner.

According to Title 10, U.S.C, § 14502, Special selection boards: correction of errors, allows the Secretary of the military department concerned to convene Special Selection Boards if officers were not considered by a mandatory promotion board due to an administrative error or if officers were considered by a mandatory promotion board and were not selected due to a material error. For officers who were considered but not selected due to a material error, the Secretary determines if, the action of the mandatory promotion board was contrary to law in a matter material to the decision of the board or involved material error of fact or material administrative error; or the mandatory board did not have before it for its consideration material information.

The complete advisory opinion is at Exhibit C.

APPLICANT'S REVIEW OF AIR FORCE EVALUATION

The Board sent a copy of the advisory opinion to the applicant on 1 Jul 24 for comment (Exhibit D), but has received no response.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSION

1. The application was timely filed.
2. The applicant exhausted all available non-judicial relief before applying to the Board.
3. After reviewing all Exhibits, the Board concludes the applicant is the victim of an error or injustice. The Board concurs with the rationale and recommendation of ARPC/PB and finds a preponderance of the evidence substantiates the applicant's contentions. Therefore, the Board recommends correcting the applicant's records as indicated below.
