

AIR FORCE DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARD DECISIONAL DOCUMENTSUMMARY:

The applicant was discharged on 02 February 2023 in accordance with Air Force Instruction 36-3208, Administrative Separation of Airman, with a General Discharge for Misconduct (Minor Infractions). The applicant appealed for an upgrade of his discharge characterization.

The applicant was not represented by counsel.

The applicant requested the board be completed based on a records only review. The Board was conducted on 27 July 2023.

The attached examiner's brief (provided to applicant only), extracted from available service records, contains pertinent data regarding the circumstances and character of the applicant's military service.

DISCUSSION: The Discharge Review Board (DRB), under its responsibility to examine the propriety and equity of an applicant's discharge, is authorized to change the characterization of service and the narrative reason for discharge if such changes are warranted. If applicable, the board can also change the applicant's reenlistment eligibility code. In reviewing discharges, the board presumes regularity in the conduct of governmental affairs unless there is substantial credible evidence to rebut the presumption, to include evidence submitted by the applicant. The Board completed a thorough review of the circumstances that led to the discharge and the discharge process to determine if the discharge met the pertinent standards of equity and propriety.

The applicant's record of service included an Article 15, multiple Letters of Reprimand, and a Letter of Counseling. His misconduct included: Willfully failed to maintain vigilance at his post; Failed to show proper customs and courtesies to the chain of command; Willfully failed to render the proper customs and courtesies to the Group Commander; Failed to go at the time prescribed to the appointed place of duty (x2); Wore duty cover backwards; Willfully failed to refrain from sleeping on duty.

The documentary evidence the Board considered as part of the review includes, but is not limited to the DD Form 293, Application for the Review of Discharge from the Armed Forces of the United States, and any additional documentation submitted by applicant and/or counsel; the applicant's personnel file from the Automated Records Management System (ARMS); and the DRB Brief detailing the applicant's service information and a summary of the case.

The applicant indicated that his DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, shows a General Discharge, but his DD Form 100, Request and Authorization for Separation, shows his service as honorable.

The DRB reviewed the applicant's entire service record and found no evidence of impropriety or inequity to warrant an upgrade of the discharge. The applicant's DD Form 100 contained an administrative error, stating an Honorable characterization. However, this error was corrected to reflect "General," prior to the discharge in the form of an orders amendment. The DD Form 214/5 Series is the official record of separation and characterization of service. The discharge received was deemed appropriate.

FINDING: The DRB voted unanimously to deny the applicant's request to upgrade his discharge characterization, to change the discharge narrative reason, and to change the reenlistment eligibility code.

Should the applicant wish to appeal this decision, the applicant must request a personal appearance before this Board before applying for relief to the Air Force Board for Correction of Military Records (AFBCMR). In accordance with DAFI 36-2603, Air Force Board for Correction of Military Records, all applicants before the AFBCMR must first exhaust available administrative avenues of relief before applying to the AFBCMR, otherwise their AFBCMR case will be administratively closed until such time that the applicant avails themselves of the available avenue of relief. Therefore, should the applicant wish to appeal this decision, they must first exercise their right to make a personal appearance before the AFDRB.

CONCLUSION: After a thorough review of the available evidence, to include the Applicant's issues, summary of service, service/medical record entries, and discharge process, the Board found the discharge was proper and equitable. Therefore, the awarded characterization of service shall remain "General," the narrative reason for separation shall remain "Misconduct (Minor Infractions)," and the reentry code shall remain "2B." The Air Force DRB (AFDRB) results were approved by the board president on 28 July 2023. If desired, the applicant can request a list of the board members and their votes by writing to:
