

ARMY BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF MILITARY RECORDS

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

IN THE CASE OF: [REDACTED]

BOARD DATE: 12 March 2024

DOCKET NUMBER: AR20230008450

APPLICANT REQUESTS: correction of his DD Form 214 (Armed Forces of the United States Report of Transfer or Discharge) to reflect his requested middle name as reflected on his Certificate of Live Birth instead of the contested middle name.

APPLICANT'S SUPPORTING DOCUMENT(S) CONSIDERED BY THE BOARD:

- (DD Form 149 (Application for Correction of Military Record)
- Certificate of Live Birth
- DD Form 214
- Oklahoma Driver License

FACTS:

1. The applicant did not file within the 3-year time frame provided in Title 10, U.S. Code, section 1552(b); however, the Army Board for Correction of Military Records (ABCMR) conducted a substantive review of this case and determined it is in the interest of justice to excuse the applicant's failure to timely file.

2. The applicant states no additional contentions.

3. None of the documents in the applicant's service record show the requested middle name; all the records, including the below sampling, show the contested middle name or initial.

- DA Form 4 (Enlistment Contract-Armed Forces of the United States)
- SF Form 89 (Report of Medical History)
- DD Form 398 (Statement of Personal History)
- DA Form 137 (Installation Clearance Record)
- DA Form 20 (Enlisted Qualification Record).
- DD Form 214

4. The applicant provided a copy of his certificate of live birth and driver license, which reflect his requested middle name.

BOARD DISCUSSION:

After reviewing the application, all supporting documents, and the evidence found within the military record, the Board found that relief was not warranted. The applicant's contentions, the military record, and regulatory guidance were carefully considered. The evidence of record shows he used the contested middle name (starts with the letter J) during his service. The Board found no evidence he used the requested middle name (starts with the letter L) during his service. The ABCMR begins its consideration of each case with the presumption of administrative regularity. The applicant has the burden of proving an error or injustice by a preponderance of the evidence. The Army has an interest in maintaining the integrity of its records for historical purposes. The information in those records must reflect the conditions and circumstances that existed at the time the records were created, unless there is sufficient evidence that shows a material error or injustice.

2. This Record of Proceedings, will be filed in his military record in order to provide clarity and to deal with any confusion that might arise regarding the difference in his middle name. Filing the Board's decisional document will also guarantee the historical accuracy of the applicant's military record regarding the middle name under which he served.

BOARD VOTE:

BOARD DETERMINATION/RECOMMENDATION:

The evidence presented does not demonstrate the existence of a probable error or injustice. Therefore, the Board determined the overall merits of this case are insufficient as a basis for correction of the records of the individual concerned.

I certify that herein is recorded the true and complete record of the proceedings of the Army Board for Correction of Military Records in this case.

REFERENCES:

1. Title 10, U.S. Code, section 1552(b), provides that applications for correction of military records must be filed within 3 years after discovery of the alleged error or injustice. This provision of law also allows the ABCMR to excuse an applicant's failure to timely file within the 3-year statute of limitations if the ABCMR determines it would be in the interest of justice to do so.
2. Army Regulation 635-5 (Separation Documents), in effect at the time, prescribed the separation documents that must be prepared for Soldiers upon retirement, discharge, or release from active-duty service or control of the Active Army. It established standardized policy for preparing and distributing the DD Form 214. The general instructions stated all available records would be used as a basis for preparation of the DD Form 214. The specific instructions for item 1 (Last Name – First Name – Middle Name) stated to enter the last name, first name, and full middle name or names, if any.
