

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF MILITARY RECORDS

Application for the Correction of the Coast Guard Record of:

FINAL DECISION
BCMR Docket No. 2002-154

[REDACTED]

SUMMARY OF THE RECORD

The applicant asked the Board to correct his record to show that he reenlisted on his 10th anniversary on active duty, which he alleged was May 20, 2001, to receive a Zone B selective reenlistment bonus (SRB) in accordance with ALCOASTs 127/01 and 198/01. He alleged that he was changing stations when the ALCOASTs were issued and never heard about them.

The applicant enlisted in the Coast Guard for 4 years on May 21, 1991. Because he had 2 years and 25 days of prior active service in the Army Reserve, his active duty base date is February 26, 1991. On February 10, 1995, he reenlisted for 4 years, through February 9, 1999. No SRB multiple was authorized for members in the MK rating while the applicant was in Zone A. On February 9, 1999, the applicant voluntarily extended his enlistment for 2 years, through February 9, 2001. On February 7, 2001, he voluntarily extended his contract for another 2 years, through February 9, 2003. On his 10th active duty anniversary, February 26, 2001, ALCOAST 488/00 was in effect with no multiple for MKs in Zone B. No Zone B SRB multiple was ever authorized for members in the MK rating while the applicant was in Zone B.

The Chief Counsel of the Coast Guard recommended that the Board deny relief because the applicant was never eligible for an SRB. In response, the applicant asked for a "waiver" of his prior service time in the Army Reserve to make him eligible for the SRB.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

Paragraph 3.d.(10) of Enclosure (1) to COMDTINST 7220.33 provides that "[t]ours of active duty in any Uniformed Service (Regular or Reserve), including active duty for training, must be included in computing total active duty for the purpose of establishing SRB Zone eligibility." The record indicates that the applicant was never eligible for an SRB from his enlistment in the Coast Guard on May 21, 1991, to his 10th active duty anniversary on February 26, 2001. Although the applicant asked the Board to waive his prior active service in the Army Reserve to make him eligible for a Zone B SRB, there is no basis in the record for disregarding the facts and regulations. Accordingly, the applicant's request should be denied.
