

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF MILITARY RECORDS

Application for the Correction of the Coast Guard Record of:

FINAL DECISION
BCMR Docket No. 2003-121

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

SUMMARY OF THE RECORD

The applicant asked the Board to correct his home of record from [REDACTED], to 175 [REDACTED] Guam. The applicant had served earlier in the Coast Guard Reserve and listed [REDACTED] as his home of record upon that enlistment. He alleged that his 2003 enlistment contract in the regular Coast Guard contains the incorrect [REDACTED] address, which was his temporary address at the time of his 2003 enlistment.

The Judge Advocate General (TJAG) of the Coast Guard recommended that the Board grant relief. He stated that every document in the applicant's record except one shows that [REDACTED] is his home of record. He stated that the applicant and his recruiter, in transferring information from the applicant's enlistment application to his enlistment contract, made a bona fide error in listing the [REDACTED] address as the applicant's home of record instead of the [REDACTED] address.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

The applicant's original enlistment contract shows [REDACTED] as his home of record. However, the DD form 1966 (enlistment application) he completed with his recruiter shows the [REDACTED] address as his home of record, with the [REDACTED] address as a current mailing address. Accordingly, the Board agrees with TJAG that an error was committed in transferring information from the applicant's enlistment application to his enlistment contract and that the request for relief should be granted.

ORDER

The military record of XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX, USCG, shall be corrected to show that his official "home of record" when he enlisted in 2003 was [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
