Discharge Review Board Discussion and Decision:

DISCUSSION:

The applicant was discharged for misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct.

The applicant received two NJP's within a four-month period. Additionally, the applicant's record contains documentation of numerous counseling attempts and repeated failures on the part of the applicant to comply with military orders and responsibilities.

The applicant was properly notified of the intent to discharge and afforded due process in accordance with applicable policy. The Board finds that the applicant's character of service and reenlistment code are justified based upon the repeated misconduct, and the applicant's performance and conduct failures.

The applicant has not substantiated any error or inequity.

Final Adjudication by Assistant Commandant For Human Resources: Concur with Board. No relief.

In reviewing discharges, the Board presumes regularity in the conduct of governmental affairs unless there is substantial credible evidence (to include evidence submitted by the Applicant) to rebut the presumption.
