

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

JRE
Docket No: 3595-02
25 November 2002

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 31 October 2002. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you served on active duty in the Navy from 26 June 1974 to 23 December 1977, when you were discharged pursuant to your request for discharge for the good of the service in lieu of trial by court-martial for multiple offenses, to include disobedience of lawful orders, assaults consummated by batteries on members of the shore patrol, and attempting to break restriction. You had an extensive prior disciplinary record, to include three instances of nonjudicial punishment, and a conviction by special court-martial. There is no indication in the available records that you lacked mental responsibility for your actions, or that you were unfit by reason of physical disability. The Board rejected your unsubstantiated contention to the effect that you were the victim of racial discrimination of such a nature and extent that the upgrade of your discharge is warranted.

In view of the foregoing, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
