

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TRG
Docket No: 4342-02
19 November 2002

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 13 November 2002. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps on 3 December 1981 at age 20. At that time you had completed about two years of service in the Naval Reserve. During the period 6 June 1983 to 7 May 1984 you received nonjudicial punishment on three occasions. Your offenses were six instances of driving on a revoked license, an unspecified period of unauthorized absence, failure to go to your appointed place of duty and altering a logbook.

Based on the foregoing record of misconduct, you were processed for an administrative discharge by reason of a pattern of misconduct. In connection with this processing, you elected to waive the right to have your case heard by an administrative discharge board. Subsequently, the discharge authority approved the recommendation of your commanding officer that you be discharged for misconduct with a discharge under other than honorable conditions, and you were so discharged on 19 June 1984.

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your prior honorable service in the Naval Reserve and your initial period of good service in the Marine Corps. The Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given your three nonjudicial punishments for multiple offenses. The Board believed that six instances of driving on a revoked license is indicative of willful misconduct. The Board concluded that the discharge was proper as issued and no change is warranted.

Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
