

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

REC
Docket No: 05783-10
10 March 2011

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 9 March 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy on 4 May 1979. On 5 December 1979, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for being absent from your appointed place of duty. On 12 January 1980, you received NJP for being in an unauthorized absence (UA) status for five days, and two additional incidents of being UA. On 25 January 1980, you were notified that administrative discharge procedures were initiated and that you would receive a general discharge upon your separation. On 3 March 1980, a mental health evaluation diagnosed you with a personality disorder (fear of being on a ship). With the diagnosis, you were recommended for discharge. However, your misconduct continued and on 16 April 1980, you received NJP for being absent from your appointed place of duty. On 8 May 1980, the discharge authority directed a general discharge due to unsuitability. You were so discharged on 19 May 1980.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and immaturity. However, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant any change in your character of service, given your record of three NJP's for misconduct. The Board also noted that you were fortunate to receive a general discharge since a separation under other than honorable conditions is often directed when an individual is found to have committed misconduct. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFIEFFER
Executive Director
